

GGP USER CONFERENCE PROGRAM – PARIS

DATA VIZUALIZATION WORKSHOP:

13:00 – 18:00, 22nd October & 9:00 – 17:00 23rd October

INED

COUNCIL OF PARTNERS:

14:00 – 18:00, 23rd October

INED & Dinner at a local Restaurant

DAY 1: 24th October 2019

Paris School of Economics

08h30 Registration & Coffee

09h00 Welcome (Magda Tomasini & Anne Gauthier)

09h15 Daniele Vignoli – Economic Uncertainty & Fertility in Europe

Daniele Vignoli is Full Professor of Demography at the University of Florence, where he teaches Demography, Social Demography, and Longitudinal Data Analysis. He coordinated national and international research projects. Currently, he leads an ERC Consolidator Grant on “Economic Uncertainty and Fertility in Europe”. His research interests address: family-related behaviors, comparative family demography, family life courses, and family events and subjective well-being.

10h00 Coffee break & Poster Session 1

The Interrelationship of Union Formation and Fertility in Italy: The Role of Economic Uncertainty

Giammarco Alderotti, Alessandra De Rose, Valentina Tocchioni, and Daniele Vignoli

Economic Uncertainty and Divorce in Italy

Elena Bastianelli, and Daniele Vignoli

To leave or not to leave Croatia: The correlates of intentions to move abroad

Ivan Čipin, Petra Međimurec, and Mario Brnić

The Influence of Adult Children's Socio-economic Status on Intergenerational Solidarity in Japan

Nobutaka Fukuda

Cohabitation and transition to marriage in Lithuania and Belarus: an analysis of first-partnership formation among the 1970-1984 birth cohorts

Ausra Maslauskaite

Influence of family trajectories on the marital agreement in France

Nicolas Cauchi-Duval, and Céline Monicolle

Attitudes towards family dissolution over the lifecourse: Does cohabitation make people less traditional?

Martin Kreidl, and Zuzana Žilinčíková

11h00 Session 1: Fertility & Migration

Multigenerational perspective of non-marital childbearing of the Russian-origin migrants in the framework of sending and host populations

Leen Rahn, Luule Sakkeus, Liili Abuladze, and Allan Puur

The realization of short-term fertility intentions among immigrants and children of immigrants in Norway and Sweden

Erik Carlsson

Childbearing among Polish migrant women in Sweden: a country-of-origin and country-of-destination approach

Jonathan Lindström and Eleonora Mussino

Positive relationship between migration and fertility intentions: the case of post-socialist EU member states

Vytenis Juozas Deimantas

12h15 Lunch

13h15 Session 2: Health & Wellbeing

Loneliness among caregivers amongst selected European Countries

Anita Abramowska-Kmon

The well-being outcomes of men and women after partnership dissolution

Daria Popova

Mental health in married, cohabiting and living apart together (LAT) relationships: Exploring the Mediating and Moderating Mechanisms

Deniz Yucel

14h30

Coffee break

14h45 Session 3: Fertility Intentions & Contraceptive Use

Age at first child and interval between first and second birth. A comparison between Uruguay, the United States, and the United Kingdom

Wanda Cabella, and Ignacio Pardo

(Un)certainly of short-term fertility intentions, their realisation, and their stability: Evidence from Poland

Zuzanna Brzozowska and Monika Mynarska

Quantifying age constraints to childbearing in today's societies

Eva Beaujouan and Zuzanna Brzozowska

Changes in contraceptive use in Estonia 1994-2005

Annika Tamme and Rachel Scott

16h15

Coffee break

16h45 Sunnee Billingsley - Demographic Trends in Post-Socialist Countries

Sunnee Billingsley is Associate Professor (Docent) in Sociology at Stockholm University. She studies the effects of social stratification, social policy and social change on demographic patterns. Her research interests include: comparative and micro level analyses of fertility and mortality trends, demographic change in post-communist countries (Russia in particular). She is also studying the demographic effects of social mobility in Sweden, focusing on both mortality and fertility.

17h30

GGP Showcase

18h15 Social Dinner - Parisian cruise on the River Seine

Departure by public transportation to the venue (18h15), welcome cocktail on the boat (19h00), cruise departure and start of the buffet (19h45)

DAY 2: 25th October 2019

09h00 Michael Rosenfeld - Marriage, Choice, and Couplehood in the Age of the Internet

Michael Rosenfeld is Professor and Chair of Sociology at Stanford University, where he also teaches Changing American Family, and Intro to Data Analysis. He studies mating and dating, the Internet's effect on society, family history and family law (especially as they relate to same-sex couples and their children). He is currently working on "How Couples Meet and Stay Together", a longitudinal study of social life in the US, funded by the National Science Foundation.

09h45 Session 4: Partnerships and Inequalities

Relationship satisfaction and financial conflicts among older couples in Sweden

Linda Kridahl and Ann-Zofie Duvander

Educational assortative mating and its association with country-level inequalities

Alessandra Trimarchi and Laurent Toulemon

Family states and income differences between men and women in Canada

Jarl Mooyaart and Celine Le Bourdais

Marital intentions and realization around the Great Recession in the Netherlands, France and Hungary

Livia Murinkó

11h00 Coffee break & Poster Session 2

Leaving the Parental Home: Insights from the Generations and Gender Survey

Katrin Schwanitz, Francesco Rampazzo, and Agnese Vitali

Second Demographic Transition Invades Italy

Elena Pirani, Arnstein Aassve, Letizia Mencarini, Daniele Vignoli

Home alone: Explaining the relationship between low second childbearing rates and childcare support in Belarus using the Generations and Gender Survey

Kamila Ishchanova

Gender equality in medical careers parallel worsening work-conditions. A case of gender paradox?

Camilla Gaiaschi

Relational Pathways to Delayed Childbearing and Childlessness in Cross-National Comparison

Md Mahfuzur Rahman, and Bryndl Hohmann-Marriott

What lessons Pakistan can learn from Bangladesh in reducing its fertility

Mehtab S. Karim

Trends, Patterns and prospects of "one-person" and "one-couple only" households in India: An evidence from National Family Health Survey

Naina Purkayastha, and Preeti Dhillon

12h00 Session 5: Cross-National Difference in Fertility

Couples fertility differentials by education: do step-children make a difference?

Laurent Toulemon and Alessandra Trimarchi

Union instability and fertility: an international perspective

Ana Fostik, Daniel Ciganda, Mariana Fernandez Soto, and Fernando Ruiz Vallejo

Using the GGS data to validate results based on reconstructed EU-SILC birth histories

Martin Klesment, Allan Puur, and Luule Sakkeus

Parity-Specific Fertility Transitions across Europe

Ralina Panova

13h15 Lunch

14h15 Session 6: Division of Housework

Fertility and Maternal Employment: Do Fathers Matter?

Paola Profeta and Ester Fanelli

The gender division of housework at different stages of family life: a comparison of France, Hungary and the Netherlands using 3rd wave GGS data

Zsuzsanna Makay

Do French couples adapt their division of housework to their careers? A longitudinal analysis

Alix Sponton

The division of housework and re-partnering in Europe: are re-partnered men and women unions less traditional than those in their first relationship?

Mariona Lozano and Joan Garcia-Roman

15h30 Closing

Scientific committee

Tom Emery (NIDI), André Grow (MPIDR), Jennifer Holland (Erasmus), Ariane Pailhé (INED)

Organization committee

Arianna Caporali (INED), Luisa Fadel (NIDI), Sorya Le Forestier (INED), Silvia Huix (INED), Ariane Pailhé (INED), Arnaud Regnier-Loilier (INED), Laurent Toulemon (INED), Karine Wigdorowicz (INED)

