Funding for Data Collection in Norway

Funding for the Generations and Gender Survey in Norway has been secured! The Research Council of Norway will finance the project "Falling fertility and rising social inequalities", which includes data collection for the next round of the GGS, for the coming four years. We congratulate Trude Lappegård, Lars Dommermuth and other colleagues at the University of Oslo and Statistics Norway (SSB).

GGP founders - Miroslav Macura

To celebrate the 20th anniversary of the GGP, we go back to the roots. In the coming months, we will introduce the founding members of the GGP, who were present at the first Consortium Meeting in Paris in 2000. We start by highlighting Miroslav Macura - who worked at the Population Unit of the Division for Economic Analysis & Projections of the United Nations - and his contribution to the GGP on our homepage.

CSDI Workshop in Paris

The 2020 Comparative Survey Design and Implementation (CSDI) Workshop is coming closer. It will take place from March 11-13 at the Condorcet Campus in Paris, France. The workshop will be hosted by the Center for Data and Methods of Sciences Po (CDSP) and the French National Centre for Scientific Research (CNRS). One session of this conference will be devoted to the GGP. Online registration closes on March 1. Please find more information and the registration form here.

Call for Abstracts - Congress of the Latin American Population Association

The IX Congress of the Latin American Population Association will take place in Valparaíso, Chile from November 3-6. The general theme is “Population Studies and the Challenge of Equality in Latin America and the Caribbean”. Please find the call for abstracts here. The submission deadline for abstracts is March 6.

SSHOC Workshop - Linking Social Survey and Linguistic Infrastructures

The GGP is part of Social Sciences & Humanities Open Cloud (SSHOC) and contributes to a work package with an analysis of using audio files in a survey context. On March 24, SSHOC organises a workshop on linking social survey and linguistic infrastructures through the European Open Science Cloud (EOSC). The workshop will take place in Utrecht.
